

Gordon Ackley Park

Policy Governing Use of Park (Including Tennis Courts and Basketball Court)

Gordon Ackley Park is available for the use and enjoyment by all Lockwood Folly property owners, residents and guests.

Park Rules:

1. All homeowners and lot owners in Lockwood Folly have unlimited access to the Park and the recreational amenities in the Park, with a few minor limitations outlined below.
 - a. All residents of Lockwood Folly, including long-term and short-term renters and family of property owners, have the same unlimited access as property owners.
 - b. Non-family guests of property owners and/or residents may use the Park only when accompanied by the property owner or resident.
 - i. Visiting family of property owners and residents may use the Park without being accompanied.
2. Tennis Court Restrictions
 - a. The Tennis Courts are reserved for the Lockwood Folly women's tennis group on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings from 7:30 – 9:30.
 - b. The Tennis Courts are reserved for the Lockwood Folly men's tennis group on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings from 9:30 – 11:30.
 - c. At all other times, the tennis courts are available for open play on a first come, first serve basis. When others are waiting to use the tennis courts, court use is limited to 90 minutes.
3. Basketball Court
 - a. There are currently no reserved times or limitations on the use of the basketball court. But please be courteous if others are waiting to use the basketball court.
4. Events
 - a. If any property owner wishes to use the Park or any recreational amenity in the Park for a group event, a request should be submitted to the POA Director of Grounds, the POA President or the POA Vice-President.

The POA Board reserves the right to amend this policy at any time and for any reason.
